Bloom's Taxonomy

Licensees and adult learners benefit from a higher level of education than simple recall of facts. Benjamin Bloom is credited for establishing a classification of learning objectives which proclaim learning at higher levels is dependent on the knowledge and skills developed at earlier levels of learning. These concepts are presented to assist in development of course materials but not recognized as the only source when constructing a course for adults.

According to Bloom, human thinking skills can be broken down into the following six categories:

1. Knowledge- tests recall and recognition (list, recall, repeat)
2. Comprehension/Understanding- allows students to translate, interpret and extrapolate (locate, identify, paraphrase)
3. Application/Applying- test previous information learned with new and/or unfamiliar situations (illustrate, operate, choose, demonstrate)
4. Analysis/Analyzing- encourages students to break down information into parts to test classification, arrangement and analysis skills (compare, contrast, distinguish)
5. Synthesis/ Evaluating- apply prior knowledge and skills to produce a new or whole original (select, evaluate, argue, appraise)
6. Evaluation/Creating- encourages students to make judgments according to a set of criteria (assemble, construct, create, write)

Adult Learners

The information presented below is an analysis of adult learners. Your course preparation should be mindful of the background of a real estate licensee and focus on a learner-centered approach. These concepts in action with your material will ensure a meaningful learning experience. Adult learners are:

- Problem-centered and seek solution
- Results-oriented- have specific results in mind and choose education with direct benefit
- Self-directed- independent of others
- Seek education that relates or applies directly to their perceived needs, that is timely and appropriate for their current lives
- Self-guided in their learning
- Bring more to the class room than younger learners and expect a take-away value
- Adults have established values, beliefs and attitude
- When providing new concepts or requesting a change in established behavior, be mindful that values are the most difficult to influence in relation to beliefs and attitudes.

VALUES > BELIEFS > ATTITUDES

- Understand concepts when symbols used have similar referents for them
 - Language is symbolic (gesture, sound, action, object, or word)
 - Words have no inherent meaning
 - We communicate effectively with symbols only when we have similar referents (object or experience to which a symbol refers to) for them
- Require instructors and discussion to overcome bypassing, lack of clarity and the use of emotive words
 - Bypassing occurs when people have different referents for the same word or phrase but think they have the same meanings, or when they think they disagree but really do not
 - Lack of clarity occurs when communication could be interpreted in more than one way causing ambiguity and the lack of concrete or specific referents. Think of such words as justice, fairness, democratic.
 - Replacing emotive terms (words that evoke strong feelings in others) with neutral ones allows for an objective examination of an idea
- Over time, adult learners develop listening preferences. These preferences can affect the quality of learning within your course
 - People-Oriented Listeners focus on emotions and other's moods
 - Action-Oriented Listeners focus on the discussion at hand and respond favorably to organization
 - Content-Oriented Listeners are drawn to analyzing highly credible sources of information
 - Time-Oriented Listeners focus beginning and ending times and discourage wordy discussions

Pre-License Education

Licenses shall be granted only to persons who bear a good reputation for honesty, trustworthiness, integrity and competence to transact the business of broker, affiliate broker or time-share salesperson in a manner to safeguard the interest of the public and only after satisfactory proof of such qualifications has been presented to the commission. No license shall be denied any person because of race, color, religion, sex or national origin.

Vacation Lodging Service- Designated Agent

On July 1, 2011, changes to the Vacation Lodging Services industry in Tennessee took effect. If a person named as a designated agent for a vacation lodging service firm has completed the course required pursuant to the act to be licensed as a designated agent prior to the effective date of the act or between the time the act was signed by the governor and July 1, 2011, such person shall not be required to retake any such course in order to be licensed as a designated agent by the Tennessee Real Estate Commission.

Below are some of the amendments made to Tennessee Code Annotated, section 62-13-104:

- “Designated agent” means an owner, principal, officer, or upper level manager of a vacation lodging services firm.
- Upon application for a firm license for a vacation lodging service and each renewal of the license, the firm shall designate one (1) individual from that firm who shall be individually licensed as a designated agent through the Tennessee Real Estate Commission. Such designated agent shall be responsible for the completion of training programs to be taught by an individual in the vacation lodging services business or other person who meets qualifications set by the Tennessee Real Estate Commission. Such training programs shall consist of instruction in the fundamentals of this subsection and related topics. No person shall be licensed by the commission as a designated agent until such person completes the required eight-hour introductory course.
- Every two (2) years, as a requisite for the reissuance of a firm license for a vacation lodging service and for reissuance of the designated agent license, the firm shall furnish certification that the designated agent for the firm has completed eight (8) classroom hours in training programs approved by the commission.
- If a designated agent, as designated by a vacation lodging services firm, leaves or moves from the vacation lodging service firm, the firm or designated agent for such firm must notify the Tennessee Real Estate Commission within ten (10) days of such action. The vacation lodging service firm must replace the designated agent within sixty (60) days of such action and notify the commission of the name of the new designated agent. During such time period, all rules or regulations related to a vacation lodging service firm shall remain in full force and effect with respect to such a vacation lodging service firm until a designated agent is replaced. Any obligation or duty required to be fulfilled by the designated agent shall be fulfilled by another person in the vacation lodging service firm.
- A designated agent may serve as a designated agent for multiple offices of the same vacation lodging service firm within a fifty (50) mile radius of the principal office of the firm, but may not serve as a designated agent for multiple firms.
- The firm license and the license for the designated agent for the firm, and all renewals thereof, shall expire at the same time. If a license is issued to a designated agent following the date the firm license is issued or renewed, the license for the designated agent shall be issued or renewed so that it expires on the date the license of the firm is to expire. The commission is authorized to prorate the license for the designated agent or extend the date for the renewal of such a license to ensure the licenses expire concurrently.

Error and Omissions Insurance

T.C.A. § 62-13-112. Errors and omissions insurance.

(a) Each licensee who is licensed under this chapter shall, as a condition to licensing, carry errors and omissions insurance to cover all activities contemplated under this chapter. The requirements of this section shall not apply to acquisition agents.

(b) It is not mandatory that a person who has been issued a firm license obtain errors and omissions insurance in the name of the firm. Persons issued a firm license by the Tennessee real estate commission shall have the option of obtaining errors and omissions coverage in the name of the firm in addition to the mandatory individual coverage for the brokers and affiliate brokers within the firm.

(c) The commission shall make the insurance required under this section available to each licensee by contracting with an insurance provider for errors and omissions insurance coverage for each licensee after competitive, sealed bidding in accordance with title 12, chapter 3.

(d) Any policy obtained by the commission shall be available to each licensee with no right on the part of the insurance provider to cancel coverage for any licensee, other than as set forth by the commission and in compliance with § 56-7-1803.

(e) Each licensee shall have the option of obtaining errors and omissions insurance independently, if the coverage contained in an independently obtained policy complies with the minimum requirements established by the commission.

(f) The commission shall determine the terms and conditions of coverage required under this section, including, but not limited to, the minimum limits of coverage, the permissible deductible and the permissible exemptions.

(g) Each licensee shall be notified of the required terms and conditions of coverage for the policy at least thirty (30) days before the licensee's renewal date. A certificate of coverage, showing compliance with the required terms and conditions of coverage, shall be filed with the commission by the license renewal date by each licensee who elects not to participate in the insurance program administered by the commission.

(h) If the commission is unable to obtain errors and omissions insurance coverage to insure all licensees who choose to participate in the insurance program at a reasonable premium, in such amount as determined by the commission, the requirement of insurance coverage under this section shall be void during the applicable contract period.

(i) The errors and omissions insurance coverage required by this section shall become effective as a condition of license granting or renewal on December 31, 1990. If practical, the commission may offer the coverage on a voluntary basis before such date.

Rule 1260-1-.15 Errors and Omissions Insurance Coverage

It shall be a requirement for an active licensee to carry errors and omissions insurance to cover all activities contemplated under the Tennessee Real Estate Broker License Act unless the Commission is unable to obtain coverage pursuant to T.C.A. §62-13-112(g) which would void the requirement of coverage under the applicable contract period.

- (1) A licensee who places his license in an inactive or retired status is not required to carry errors and omissions insurance until such time as his license is activated.
- (2) New licensees, licensees who activate their license from an inactive or retired status, and licensees who reinstate their license from an expired status at a time other than the beginning of the licensing period shall pay a prorated premium in accordance with a schedule provided by the insurance provider.
- (3) The Commission shall perform random audits to assure that licensees have met the requirements of this rule.
- 4) Any independently obtained errors and omissions insurance policy shall, at a minimum, be issued upon the same terms and conditions as the policy obtained by the Tennessee Real Estate Commission pursuant to T.C.A. § 62-13-112, including, but not limited to, the limits of coverage, the permissible deductible, the permissible exemptions and the term of the policy.

All active Tennessee real estate brokers, affiliate brokers and timeshare salespersons are required to carry errors and omissions insurance as a condition of licensure. The State of Tennessee selected Rice Insurance Services Company, LLC (RISC) as the program administrator for the group Errors & Omissions (E&O) insurance program for Tennessee licensees for 2013 - 2014. Continental Casualty Company, one of the CNA insurance companies, is the insurance carrier for the E&O program. The CNA insurance group is one of the largest writers of commercial property casualty insurance in the United States and is rated A (Excellent) by A.M. Best.

RISC provides all servicing of the Tennessee account (administrative duties include claims handling, policy issuance, marketing mailings, etc.) The management team of RISC specializes in handling group programs for states with mandatory real estate E&O insurance requirements. RISC is located at 4211 Norbourne Boulevard, Louisville, Kentucky 40207.

This program is designed exclusively to provide professional liability insurance for Tennessee Real Estate Licensees. Even the most careful professional cannot always prevent the filing of a frivolous lawsuit nor can they preclude making an honest mistake. Under this program, the insurance provider has the responsibility of defending as well as paying a settlement or judgment on covered claims, subject to the deductible, up to the limits of liability.

(4) (A) "Broker" means any person who, for a fee, commission, finders fee or any other valuable consideration or with the intent or expectation of receiving a fee, commission, finders fee or any other valuable consideration from another, solicits, negotiates or attempts to solicit or negotiate the listing, sale, purchase, exchange, lease or option to buy, sell, rent or exchange for any real estate or of the improvements on the real estate or any time-share interval as defined in the Tennessee Time-Share Act, compiled in title 66, chapter 32, part 1, collects rents or attempts to collect rents, auctions or offers to auction or who advertises or holds out as engaged in any of the foregoing;

(B) "Broker" also includes any person employed by or on behalf of the owner or owners of lots or other parcels of real estate, at a salary, fee, commission or any other valuable consideration, to sell the real estate or any part of the real estate, in lots or parcels or other disposition of the real estate. It also includes any person who engages in the business of charging an advance fee or contracting for collection of a fee in connection with any contract whereby the person undertakes primarily to promote the sale of real estate either through its listing in a publication issued primarily for that purpose or for referral of information concerning the real estate to brokers, or both;
